SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

19 May 2008

On Monday, May 19th the four winners of the Charlevoix Lions Club's annual youth college scholarships along with the two winners of the Charlevoix County Junior Golf League's college-book scholarships were the honored guests of the club at the noon luncheon meeting at the "Weathervane". Also, as guest, was Suzanne Klinger, CHS Principal.

Day Program Host, Lion Bob Heath, introduced the honorees: Winners of the two Stewart "Irish" E. Coleman Scholarships for outstanding student-athletes are Desi Faust, headed to Central Michigan University, and Cliff Jones, to enter Michigan State University. Winners of the two Don Meggison Community Service Awards are Courtney Chamberlain, headed to Michigan State, and Alina Dhaseleer, to enter Aquinas College. The Lions Junior Golf Book Scholarship Award winner is Emily Foster, headed to Albion College and a second golf book award by the Junior Association itself went to Kyle Jones, set to enter Ferris State. (Kyle is the twin brother of Cliff Jones)

The some forty Lions listened in awe and then applauded loudly when each of the six honorees gave short presentations of their future plans and answered club-member questions of their activities leading to their selections. Principal Klinger recounted the near perfect school records of each of the six honorees.

The youth scholarship programs are only a part of the thirty plus beneficiary programs and projects that the Charlevoix Lions donate to from their various annual fundraising events, such as, The "Fine-Dining-Foodwagon" at the October "Applefest"; Christmas Tree sales in East Park; The golf tournament at "The Belvedere"; "Venetian-Saturday Lions Chicken Barbecue"; "White Cane Safety Days"
